UNIVERSITY OF GALWAY

Recognition of Prior Learning

1. Candidates who do not meet the minimum entry criteria are encouraged to contact the programme director to discuss eligibility under the Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) process. Such candidates may be interviewed to ascertain their suitability for the programme.

Learners may also apply for module exemptions based on prior learning. Further information is available from the Programme Director and on the University's Recognition of Prior Learning website.

2. Applicants who do not have the required academic qualifications for entry purposes may also be entitled to apply under the University's Recognition of Prior Learning Policy. Further information is available on the University's Recognition of Prior Learning website.
3. In other circumstances, those with a lower degree grade or who have relevant work experience in the field of Film or Digital Media may be considered under the University's Recognition of Prior Learning policy. Further information is available on the University's Recognition of Prior Learning website.
4. Where applicants do not meet the formal academic entry requirements, they may be eligible to apply for entry under the University's Recognition of Prior Learning Policy.
5. Candidates with a H2.2 honours degree and who have a minimum of 2 years relevant work experience may also be considered under the University's Recognition of Prior Learning Policy.
6. Recognition of Prior Learning for module exemptions is not available on this programme due to external professional accreditation requirements. However RPL for entry may be considered. Further information is available from the Programme Director.
