

Code: QA224
 Title: Adjunct and Visiting Appointments at Other Institutions
 Date: 27/11/2009
 Approval: APCR

1.0 Purpose

Permission for accepting adjunct and visiting appointments at other institutions.

2.0 Description

The University supports, in principle, the acceptance by staff of adjunct and visiting appointments at other institutions. Such appointments acknowledge the standing of the staff member concerned and provide opportunities to create international links. The following general conditions apply to the acceptance of an adjunct or visiting appointment:

- The appointment, including its title, must be compatible with the standing of the staff member at NUI Galway
- The institution offering the appointment must be of an appropriate standing
- The appointment must not interfere with normal teaching, research and other duties or impose burdens on students, colleagues or on the University generally
- All research work, publications, etc., of the staff member must be credited to NUI Galway
- Normal procedures in relation to periods of absence from NUI Galway will apply to absence related to the Adjunct/Visiting Appointment.
- Any listing of the appointee by the other institution will make the Adjunct or Visiting nature of the appointment clear.

2.1 Permission

All staff must apply using the attached form to the President or his nominee (the Registrar and Deputy-President) and with the support and recommendation of their respective Head of School or Dean of College or Registrar and Deputy-President, as appropriate. The President or nominee may revoke or amend permission at any stage in the appointment. The Registrar and Deputy-President shall maintain a register of all appointments that may also be recorded in the President's Report. The following appointments and work do not fall within the terms of this policy: (i) Extern Examinerships; (ii) Occasional writing of a general kind; (iii) Occasional lectures, radio or television appearances where occasional means rare in frequency within a session and/or short in separate or accumulated duration in any one or more instance in a session.

3.0 Responsibilities
